

Carnegie Magazine Index

Volume LVI of Carnegie Magazine includes the twelve magazines published between January 1982 and December 1983. Beginning in 1982 the magazine became bimonthly, altering its traditional ten-times-per-year publication pattern. At the same time the newsletter Two Museums was created to convey the monthly calendar of events and to inform readers about activities, the major staff changes, and general news of Carnegie Institute. The magazine, in a new, larger format, continued to present articles of all kinds, and these are indexed below. For newsletter announcements about Carnegie Institute activities, please consult individual issues of Two Museums.
